

It is critical that the present status of the state and federal NO CALL LISTS remain in tact and include all telephone service in the nation. The consumer deserves the right of privacy afforded by this system.